

Mental Health Training for Juvenile Justice

Join the ranks of our 1,200 nationally certified MHTC-JJ instructors to better serve youth with mental, substance use and trauma related conditions

Become a Certified Trainer

November 7-9, 2018: New Orleans, LA

Check www.ncmhjj.com for future training opportunities

What is the Mental Health Training for Juvenile Justice?

- Research-based curriculum
- Developed by and for juvenile probation, detentions and corrections staff
- Focuses on developing and enhancing skills for working with youth

For more information, contact the National Center for Mental Health and Juvenile Justice

ncmhjj@prainc.com

(866) 962-6455

www.ncmhjj.com